Papa Ben's Kitchen Mandelbroyt

It's Mandelicious!

When our own family's heirloom recipe for homemade Mandelbread is not available, (yes, sometimes we are too busy to bake it), we have grown to love Papa Ben's. It is crunchy, delicious and parve.

We were brought up as homemade mandelbread purists, but we admit, Uncle Ben's creative flavors are lovely alongside a hot cup of coffee. Yes, truly, almost as good as our Bubbie's!

Two we've tasted and enjoyed:

ORIGINAL FAMILY RECIPE

Papa Ben's Kitchen Original Family Recipe

Belgian Chocolate bits are baked into Mandelbroyt, then laced with almonds, pecans, coconut, raisins and cherries.

Papa Ben's Kitchen Lemon Blueberry With Poppy Seeds

This twice baked Lemon Blueberry with Poppy Seed Mandelbroyt is a "fusion of tastes" – citrus, sweet blueberry and poppy seeds.

Papa Ben's Mandelbroyt is also available in Minty Dark Chocolate, Chocolate Espresso Bean and Spicy Chipotle with Ginger & Dark Chocolate, so we guess we have more tasting to do! They are all natural, KSA Kosher Parve, and contain 80 calories per serving. Learn more about Papa Ben's Kitchen: www.papabenskitchen.com.

Papa Ben Lesser, is the author of Living A Life That Matters: From Nazi Nightmare to American Dream.

Papa Ben, a Holocaust survivor, was born in Krakow, Poland in 1928. His father, Lazar owned a chocolate company famous for their chocolate covered wafer cookies. Lazar shared his love of baking with his son, and during family holidays they made Mandelbroyt, a type of twice-baked bread that is similar to Italian biscotti or almond bread. Thus– the origin of the company! A percentage of the profits from Papa Ben's Kitchen is donated to the Zachor Holocaust Remembrance Foundation. The Foundation's mission is to ensure that the tragedies of the Holocaust will never be forgotten.
