Story:

Papa Ben Lesser was born in Krakow, Poland, in 1928. His father, Lazar, owned a chocolate company that was famous for making chocolate wafer cookies. Lazar instilled in his family a love for baking which allowed the family to survive outside the ghettos for a portion of World War II.

Using the stone oven in their cottage, Ben worked with his father to make the finest baked goods including Mandelbroyt, which they shared with their family, friends and the neighboring village.

Papa Ben's is also dedicated to the remembrance of the holocaust. As a holocaust survivor himself, Ben Lesser founded the Zacchor Holocaust Remembrance foundation a non-profit organization that supports Holocaust education, remembrance, and tolerance for all people. As part of their commitment to the cause, a percentage of all Papa Ben's Kitchen Mandelbroyt sales will be donated to the Zachor Holocausts Remembrance foundation www.zachorfoundation.com. Note: National Holocaust Remembrance Day is April 7th.
