By Staff Reporters

LOS ANGELES — Papa Ben's Kitchen, known for its crispy, crunchy and delicious, twice-baked Mandelbroyt (aka Mandelbread or Almond Bread) is expanding to the East Coast. Papa Ben's Kitchen continues to satisfy palates nationwide, offering five flavors: Original Family Recipe, Minty Dark Chocolate, Chocolate Espresso Bean, Lemon Blueberry with Poppy Seeds & Spicy Chipotle with Ginger and Dark Chocolate.

Papa Ben's Kitchen is also dedicated to the remembrance of the Holocaust. As a Holocaust survivor himself, Ben Lesser founded the Zachor Holocaust Remembrance Foundation, a non-profit organization that supports Holocaust education, remembrance and tolerance of all and for all people. As part of the on-going commitment to the cause, a percentage of profits from Papa Ben's Kitchen Mandelbroyt sales will be donated to The Zachor Holocaust Remembrance Foundation.

From the ideal amount of cherries in the Original Family Recipe to just the right amount of ginger in the Spicy Chipotle with Ginger and Dark Chocolate, Papa Ben created the five featured flavors with foodies of the world in mind. Enjoy each of the flavorful, crunchy and delicious all natural, non-dairy and Kosher/Pareve cookies as you warm with seasonal teas, almond milk, coffee or even pair the Mandelbroyt with your favorite red wines and delicious cold beers. At only 80 calories a cookie, you can enjoy each of the decadent flavors and more!
